

Teenagers Translated

I would like to draw your attention to a course for Parents of Teenagers which is taking place near Masham in January/February 2011. The overall focus of the course is on preparing for, understanding and managing the teenage years and it aims to help parents feel more empowered and confident by improving communication between them and their child. Teenagers Translated is also running a workshop (morning only) on "Understanding Boys" which is taking place on 8th March. Please visit the website www.teenagerstranslated.co.uk for further information, costs and booking and/or e-mail Janey Downshire on janey@teenagerstranslated.co.uk.
