

3rd March, 2010

Dear Parents,

WORLD BOOK DAY is Thursday 4th March.

There will be a book sale from the White Rose Books on Friday 12th March at lunch time. Your daughter will have the opportunity to purchase books and to use her £1 World Book Day token.

Girls may bring in cash or will be allowed to charge up to £10 on the bill. If you do not wish your daughter to purchase books or wish to allocate her a different amount please can you email me on d.coull@queenmarys.org before Friday lunch time. If I do not hear from you I will assume your daughter can spend the money.

This is a great opportunity to promote the joy of reading.

Best wishes,

Dawn Coull
English Teacher and Librarian