

Queen Mary's Calendar 2009

This year, the GAP girls, Laura, Emma and Jess, have been working hard, taking photos from around Queen Mary's School every month. The result is a professional 2009 calendar, which successfully captures the beauty of our school campus. We encourage you to buy a copy as all proceeds go towards a gift from the GAP Girls, as a thank you for their wonderful year at the Queen Mary's. One of the gifts they aim to purchase, is new a audiometer for the Day Room, so the school can perform it's own hearing tests which the NHS no longer fund or provide for private schools. This equipment will also be available for use by other private schools in our region.

The calendars are £7 each and can be ordered by returning the order slip below to the school office with a cheque made payable to Queen Mary's School. You can also order them in person at the office or at selected school events where they will be on display.
